HUFFMASTER, JAMES TAYLOR
PAPERS, 1814-1850; 7 items, MS, printed.

Huffmaster, 1842-1931, a poet, hymnist, civic leader and Methodist minister, was for many years employed by Hutchings, Sealy and Company. He came to Galveston from Kentucky and Tennessee after serving in the Civil War, and married Ellen Augusta Hapgood in 1866.

Papers are correspondence, a military commission, invitations, a social card, and an 1814 diary kept by Joseph Huffmaster, great-grandfather of James.
