Galveston. Texas.
April. 23rd. 1872.

Dear Laura.

I received your letter and picture some time ago, and thank you very much for both, but especially for the picture. I think it is a good one of you, and am glad to have it. Have you any of mine? if not, would you like one?

I am glad that you have a minister again, and that your Sabbath School is so pleasant. Who are the teachers besides Mr. Wells, and Mr. Sayre, and Father? Yes, Laura, I expect I shall be glad to see home again, and I hope, if I live, that I shall see it by the end of June, or first of July. But I expect Minnie will get there first. I had a letter from her yesterday, but have not heard from home in some time.

It is bed-time, and I can not write more to-night, so please excuse a short letter, and let me hear from you again.

Much love to all from

Anna.

Love to Mrs. Raymond, and kind remembrances to all the family.
