Headquarters,

BUREAU REFUGEES, FREEDMEN & ABAND. LANDS,

State of Texas,

GALVESTON, TEXAS, June 19, 1867.

CIRCULAR
No. 6.

The Schools for Freedmen in Texas will close, for the customary summer vacation, on the 30th inst., to resume on the 1st of October.

Teachers desiring to continue their schools through the vacation, can do so on a self sustaining basis, prescribing and collecting such fees as they think proper. They will be allowed the use of the school furniture now in their respective school buildings, and will continue to make the customary reports, the Bureau furnishing school rooms and paying rents of the same.

Such teachers as propose to continue schools under the above terms, will report the fact promptly to the Sub-Assistant Commissioner, in whose Sub-District they may be teaching, and to these Headquarters.

Those instructors who accept the offered vacation will report at once to the Sub-Assistant Commissioner of their Sub-District, who will take charge and hold all furniture and apparatus, property of the Bureau.

CHARLES GRIFFIN,
Bv't Maj. Gen'l U. S. A., Ass't Com'r.
