Austin. Oct. 13, 1870.

Dear Stevenson;

I learn that Sinclair has gone North on account of the fever.

You can purchase the lumber &c. the same and I will pay the bills as I have the money deposited in Galveston. Have bills made out and send them to me and I will send checks for the amounts.

I left the money with Sinclair but he writes me he put it in the bank subject to my order

Yours

E. L. Bartholomew.

The whole amt of expenditure for the three places is $750.00/100
