Austin, Texas,

Nov. 16, 1870.

Dear Stevenson:-

I have not heard a word from you since the letter from Lavaca (I think was the place) in which you wrote of being sick from your journey. I have not written to you for I have not known of your return to Galveston - nor do I know of it now. I merely drop you this note to learn if you are back.

Please let me know relative to the prospects up the country; what you did &c. &c. Sinclair will be in Galveston within a few days and will furnish the money to from the bunker. He left it so it could be drawn from the bank in his absence, but as he will be there about as soon as this reaches you, it is more convenient to wait for him.

Yours &c.

E. B. Bartholomew

P. S. —

I have received no information from you relative to your trip so if you have written me I have not received your letter. E. B.
