Dear Sir: Your favor of Dec 3d is received. Enclosed find $100.00 and we will send more if you need it. Our expenses far exceed our receipts just now but we hope for better things after New Years.

Glad you have heard from Jones we feared Yellow Fever had taken him as our letters were returned from Columbia. I have no accounts of Anniversary except in A. M. of which I send you forty copies. You may hand them to friends. I can always send you as many copies as you please also old S. S. papers. I send some little cards for S. S.

Truly Yours
C. H. Howard
